Nikko

You demean and destroy
Fane programs and deploys
Your chaos and disdain
Your hate shows no refrain

Fly, fly, fly!

Your infatuation with my demonization
Your manifestation of my demonization

Desire outweighs and outstrips
You thrive in your evil hate
Your lies disseminate

Demon's Blood

Self loathing and pain have brought me here,
With all the trauma cuts, I'm left in the void

Drown my brain, upgrade my life
Damned to admit, the power you submit Vomit, shakes, pain
Another blackout, gone insane

Got my medicine
Elixir potion
Another round?
Rinse repeat

Could you understand the darkness that brought me here
A failed attempt to slip into my rejecting skin

Too lit up to fill my cup
Never clear how I got here
Steady supply, locked on cruise
Demon's blood, the life I choose

Got my medicine
Elixir potion
Another round?
Rinse repeat

Drink divine
Life's blood
Thirsty soul
Rinse repeat
Out of my head
Into the known

Got my medicine
Elixir potion
Another round
Rinse repeat

Pressure Syndrome

Walls, they've built up so high Feelings suppressed, you wish you could die
Fear and violence, they go hand in hand
Evil thoughts grow, you don't understand

Now you steer
Your mind to an end
Resolve your plan
Into the depths you descend

Fight the pressure but you know it's a losing hand
Now you're falling down just to make a stand

Stress, it's never in decline
A world closing in, societal design Constant struggle to keep ill thoughts at bay
The damn crumbles down to reveal your rage

Now you steer
Your mind to an end
Resolve your plan

Fight the pressure but you know it's a
losing hand

The pressure, it's building
Now

I just wanted to go home, but home just wanted me to go
I just wanted to be loved, but love just gave me hate

Pressure, it's building
Please don't try to stand in my way
No more falling down for me today
Pressure, it's blinding
The travesty is I don't have a say Pressure designing
A new catastrophe to close out this day

In an aimless mind as it searches and

Concuss

They push and they claw
They work hard to get stuck in your craw
They deny, debilitate
They push to the brink and never deviate

Deny
The attempts
You deny
And you never relent

Concuss, Concuss, Concuss
Get in the pit

They cuff and they sting
They crush your very soul and what you bring

They tread and confine They seal the doors through psychotic design

Deny
The attempts
You deny

Concuss, Concuss, Concuss
Get in the pit

Reforma

Mother, why have we broken you?
Afraid of the things we can't undo
Regal, violent, powerless, undyingly
serene
Think to the future, what might have been

Now you reach for change reluctantly
The world it craves the change undyingly
Now you reform

Absent in the things that we all do
Fire rages all around you
Blood tears fall and rise neverendingly
Future's regret sets in with divinity

Now you strive for change feverishly
The world it craves the change urgently
Now you reform

Go, burn, rebirth, return

Violence in the sky
Precipitate the lies

Mother, why have we broken you?
serene

Now you reach for change defiantly

INFRARED

Manifestation

Then the Earth Goes Black

When blackened hearts and closed minds Shut us out, we reign supreme There's no way out, this frightening dream
And then we lie in the bed we've made
Fear is here, end of line
Two factions prepare, we bide our time

Now, we turn the keys, then the earth goes black!

And fades away into the night
The earth goes black
And dies so slow in our mother's arms
The earth goes black
Now we hear the weeping cries
For the senseless death we've brought
Fire rains down
Hell on earth for those who stood by
Now waiting for their moment of sweet release
Bring us to our end

Something we thought we'd never see Panicked eyes slowly close
A worldly death by overdose
We now repent in hopelessness Conscience lost, it's too late Disregard has sealed our fate

Now, we turn the keys, then the earth goes black!

Now we hear all the weeping cries
Bring us to our end, nothing to defend
In this wasteland we brought upon ourselves
No two sides, just one of death
We lay it all to rest, we've scorched the skies
Through endless lies!

Now, we turn the keys, then the earth goes black!
